Mirror 1964

It Came to School . . .

and like most students, it has chugged to class three times a week; and even on occasions, has made it on Tuesday and Thursday. At just about noon each Monday, Wednesday and Friday it puffs its way from Amory winding through the Tombigbee River Bottom. Since it is one of the last steam engines in the country, its endurance exemplifies the spirit of IJC and the struggle for a higher education. The theme of this year's "Mirror" is built around "The Mississippian."

Fellow Students:

On behalf of the entire student body, let me petition the faculty with our message of thanks for the kindnesses, the endurance and the wisdom shown each student this year. I am sure all will leave here this year rededicated to the fact that Itawamba Junior College and Agricultural High School will live in the hearts and minds of our section of the country forever.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Leeper

Jimmy Leeper, President
I.J.C. Student Council

Leading this year's student legislative group is President Jimmy Leeper. Serving with him are, left to right: Danny Mullins, Al Lay, David Stone, Jimmy Leeper, Arminda Staten, Jimmy Mounce, Clifford Crabb. Standing are Dean James Thrash, Tommy Winders, Mike Coward, R. L. Wood, and Carson Holloman.

One of the functions of the Student Council is to supervise and hold campus elections. Here, President Leeper counts ballots with faculty advisors Woods and Holloman during one of the year's elections.

A Salute to Argie Wilson

IJC's "TEACHER OF THE YEAR"

The '64 Mirror Staff was perplexed with the selection of the member of the IJC faculty, who in the staff's opinion, best exemplified the characteristics of our grand and glorious institution.

Finally the decision was made. Our hats (and bonnets) are off to Mr. Wilson who teaches psychology, botany, and zoology and has on occasions filled in on other subjects. Mr. Wilson was graduated from Itawamba Agricultural High School, Itawamba Junior College, and Mississippi State University.

As he looked at IAHS in '42

IAHS Alma Mater

Our hearts in the conflict
Are grateful to thee,
Our dear Alma Mater
Thy glory shall be.
Our pride and ambition,
Our courage for right;
We'll ever be guided by thy shining light.

Thy purpose so noble,
Thy mission so true,
We strive to accomplish
With mightiest will.
We grant thee our courage,
The note of our strain;
To thee, Itawamba,
Our sweetest refrain.

CHORUS:

And so thy honor and glory,
Dear high school,
In earnest devotion
We now raise our song.
Thy standard before us,
The virtue of thy rule;
We pledge to thee our loyalty
Thy whole life long.

Dedication

For the past nine years, Mrs. Mildred Sheffield has been one of the most popular teachers on our campus. Because of the great understanding that she has of her students, Mrs. Sheffield not only has earned the respect of the student body but also that of the faculty. Therefore, we of the 1964 High School Mirror Staff do proudly dedicate this publication to our own Mrs. Sheffield.

A New Center
A New Field

Vocational and Technical Education

Bonnie Sue West

To meet the needs of industry and our changing economy a new field of instruction was necessary. During the 1963-64 school year IJC pioneered this new field when the Tupelo Center for Vocational and Technical Education was opened.

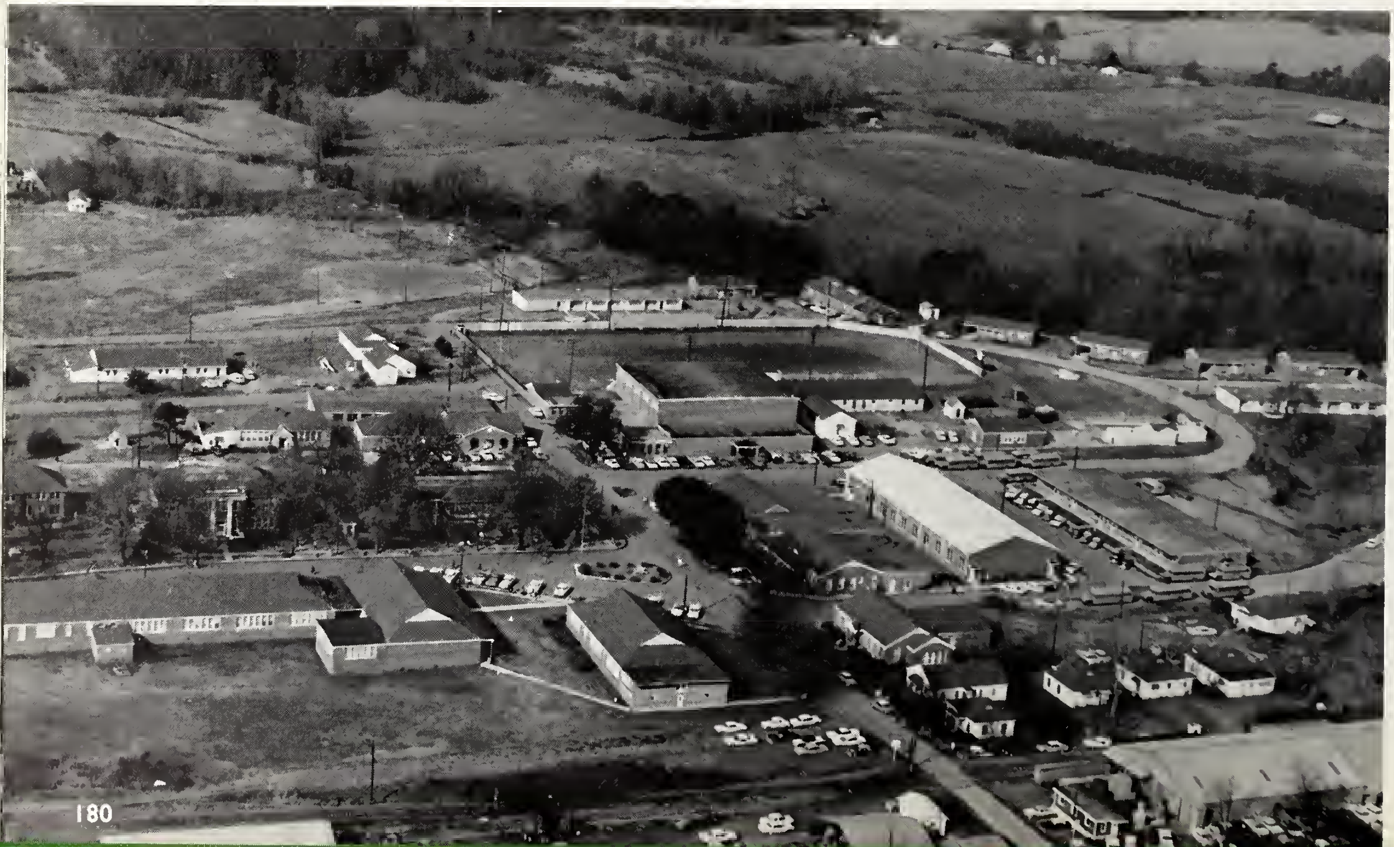
Campus Memories

Lee Hall will long be remembered by the boys who lived there during their stay at IJC. The building has been razed to make way for a new structure sometime in the future.

A new look at the College Campus.

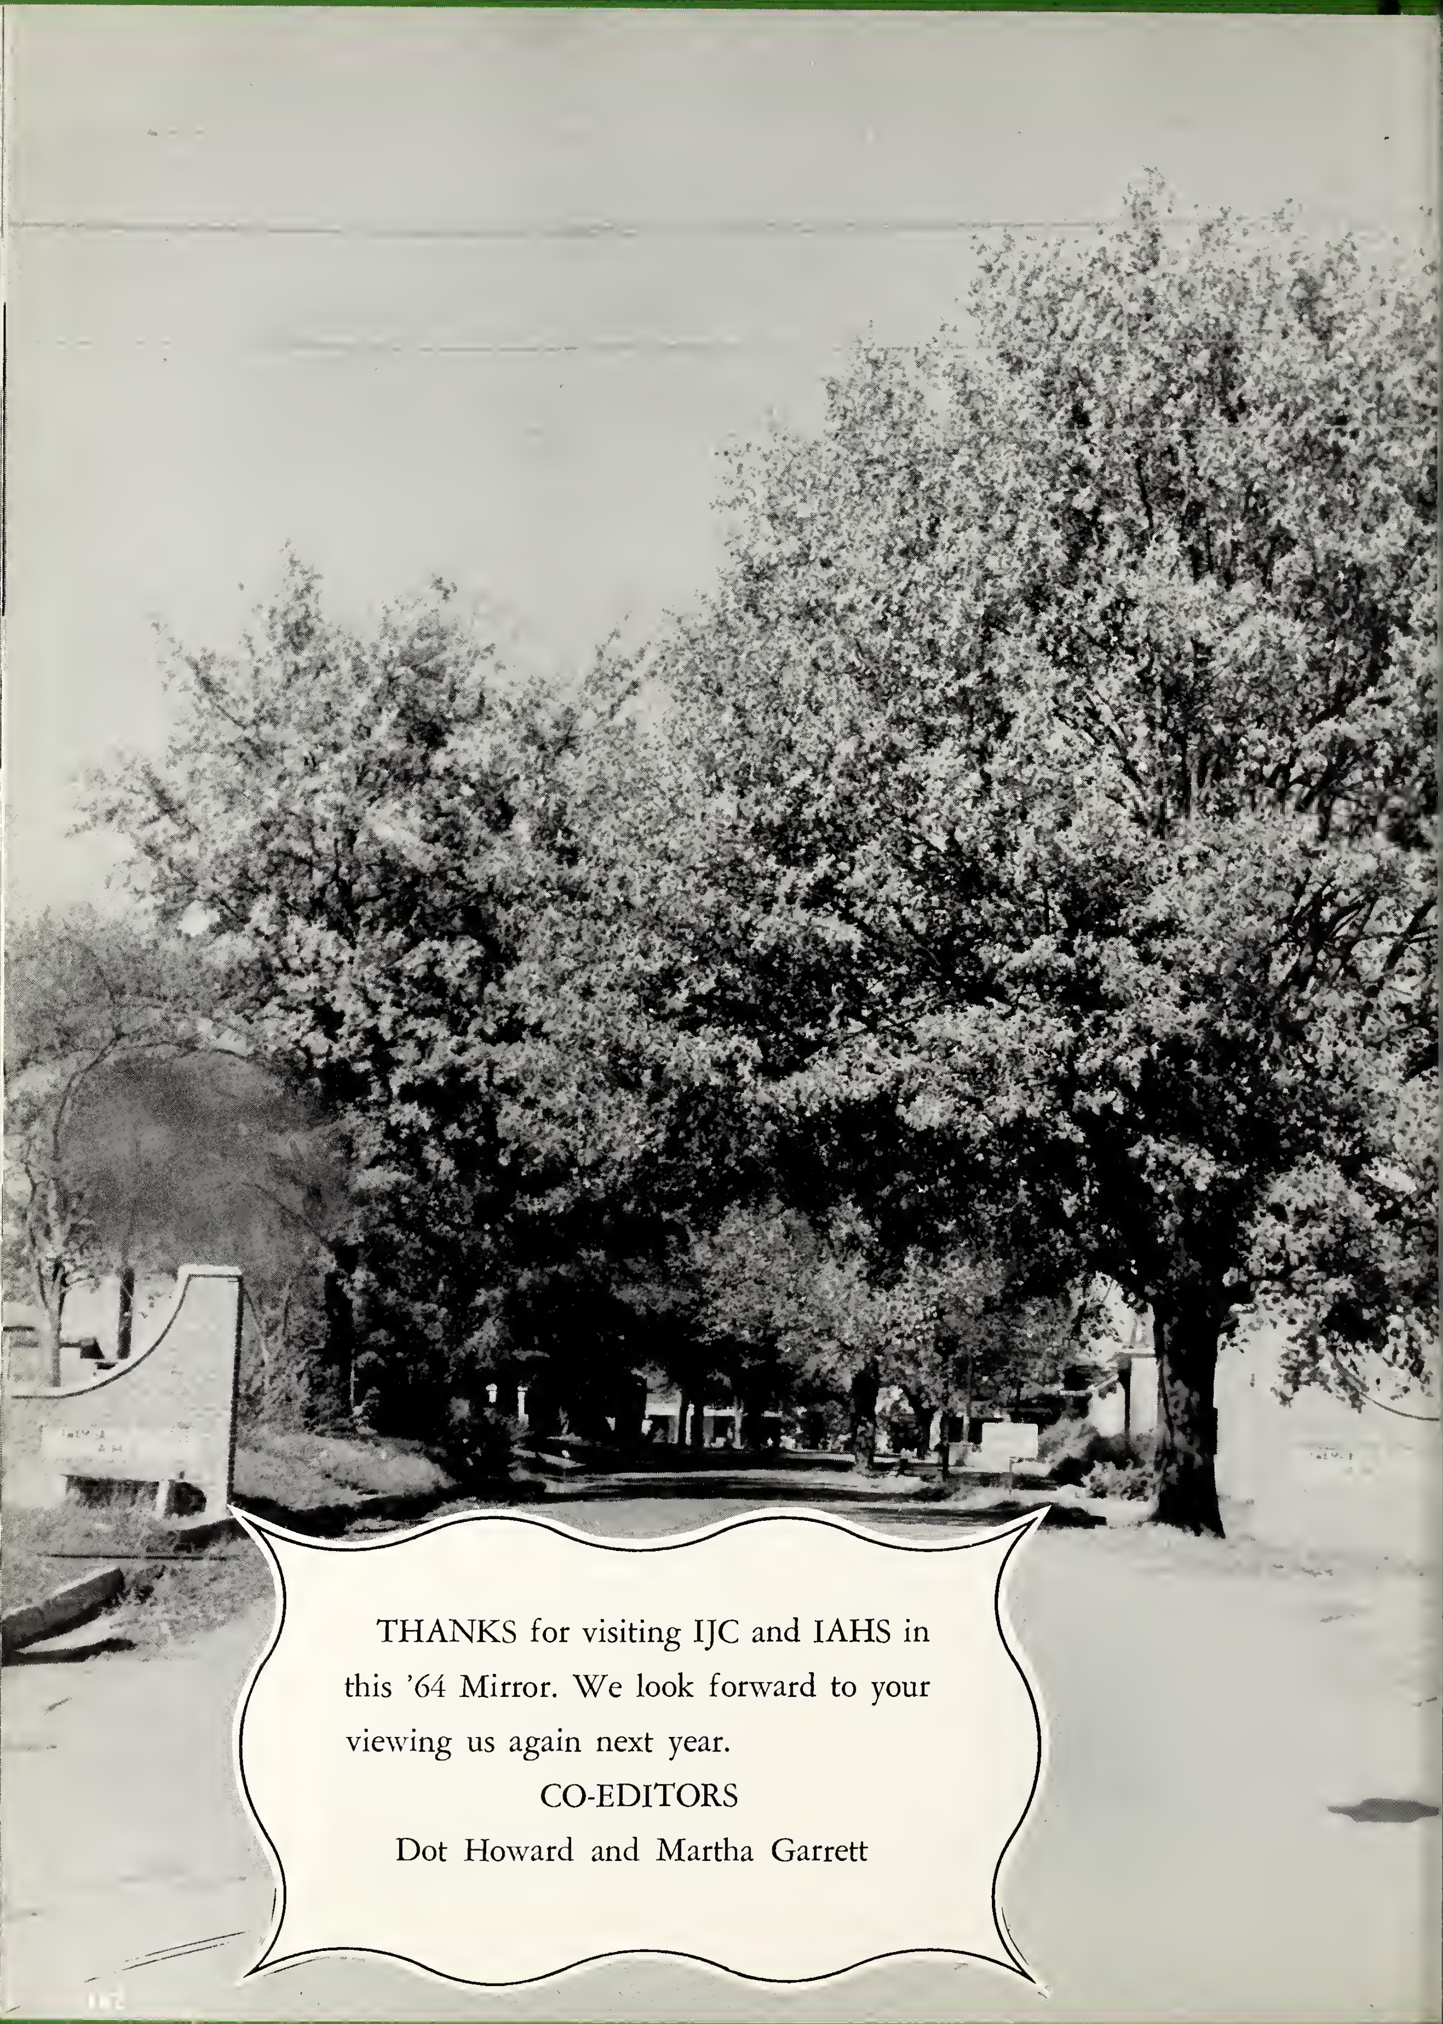


"OLD GLORY" has a new companion at IJC. The new Mississippi flag is believed to be the first state flag ever flown on our campus. IAHS principal Wayne Wood and IJC instructor N. C. Young were honorary colonels at the Paul B. Johnson Inauguration in Jackson, Mississippi.

Peggy and Barbara well represent the feeling many students had on rainy days.

Faculty members join in table discussion.

Coach Dudley Miller and Dean James Thrash are being served at the annual faculty reception given each year by the Home Economics Department.



THANKS for visiting IJC and IAHS in this '64 Mirror. We look forward to your viewing us again next year.
